

Howland Wood - Curatorial

Hewitt, Robert
+ Hewitt, A.C., Mrs.

1913-1914

[Ardsley on Hudson, NY]

August 16th, 1913.

Mr. Robert Hewitt, Ardsley-on-Hudson,
New York.

My dear Mr. Hewitt:-

Your favor of August 12th at hand with some new pages for the Lincoln book. I note your request about wishing to know the number of pages and pieces described, but I think the best plan would be to send you the book and have you compare it with yours, because there have been so many changes made and so many notes that I have put in the book. I am pretty sure that in order to keep things straight you had better go over the whole field again carefully. To avoid confusion any change you make in the book I am sending you, you had better make a note of it so that I can see that the cards correspond. Also I think it would be well to number all the pages in the two books alike, and then when we insert a page to give it an "A" number, and the same with the medals give each one a consecutive number, and when we add any pieces give them "A" numbers, and I will number each card as per the book.

I am going away for two weeks so there is no need of returning the book before the expiration of that time.

Very truly,

Aug 17.

RIO VISTA,
ARDSLEY-ON-HUDSON.

My dear Mr Wood.

I was pleased to hear from you, and think your suggestions as to the two copies very good.
I will go over it and see that you will receive it again in a few weeks time. Hope to arrange ere long to have you and your wife come out and lunch with us when we can further discuss the interesting topic of "Lincolniana"

Believe me —

Yours very truly,

R. Hewitt

Howland Wood Esq

My dear Mr Wood.

Since the receipt of the package, I regret to say, that my Convalescence from pleurisy has been very slow. Which has prevented my doing anything to advance the progress of the book. Just as soon as I am able to, you will hear from me.
In the meantime, trusting you

Are well. And enjoying this beautiful fall weather,

Believe me

Sincerely

Robert Stewart
Jr.

Wheeler.

W. Howland Bond
Dear Sir - It was Mr. Hunt's wish, that I communicate with you, in regard to some Coins, and Medals belonging to him, and might I ask you, if.

not too great a favor,
that you come some afternoon next week,
and look at them.

I am enclosing a time-table, for you to decide upon a train, convenient to you.

Yours truly,
A. C. Hewitt

October 25th, 1913.

Miss A. C. Hewitt, Ardsley-on-Hudson,
New York.

Dear Madam:-

Your letter at hand, and I would be pleased to come to Ardsley on Thursday, October 30th, and will plan to take the 2.10 train, which arrives at Ardsley at 2.57.

Very truly yours,

ARDSLEY-ON-HUDSON.

W. Hawland Dorr

Dear Sir - On Sunday, Nov.ember eleventh, sent by parcel post, the two books, Nos. of coins and medals, a stack of notes, and some loose sheets of notes.
But you please acknowledge them if you have received them, that I may know, that they reached you safely.

I have been unable to arrange, about putting the Corni and pieces in the Metropolitan Museum

but will make to do so before I leave —

Yours truly,

A. C. Smith

November 14th, 1913.

Mrs. A. C. Hewitt,
Ardsley-on-Hudson,
New York.

Dear Madam:-

The package containing the two books and the cards on the Lincoln medals came yesterday. I beg to acknowledge receipt of same.

I was under the impression that you were going to send here temporarily those Lincoln medals that I saw when up at Ardsley, so as to check them up in the book, as the value of this list is based on its completeness.

Have you done anything, as yet, about disposing of the Political medals, or do you now intend to wait until next fall?

I remain,

Very truly,

Curator.

RIO VISTA,
ARDSLEY-ON-HUDSON.

Mr. Harland Bond
Dear Sir -
Enclosed Please find my Check for $5.00 (Five) for your services and try to kindly to look over Mr. Sewall's cases. Thanking you, and when I return

I shall then decide upon the placing of the new Crabs in the Metropolitan Museum. Some of which I do not think you will find any mention of in
Mr. Seewitz's Notes or Miss As they have required and received when Mr. Hunt has not been enough to write them up -

When you have described the coins, medals, &c.
which Mr. Eden will send to you and when they are ready to be placed in the Museum, I think, that perhaps it would be better for you to communicate with my son-in-law

Mr. E. S. Taffay
Addley - or. Anderson and he will accompany you to the Museum, as I am not sure that you can have access to them otherwise, and no doubt you will be better satisfied with this arrangement.
Yours truly A. C. Hewitt

Mrs. A. C. Hewitt,
Ardsley-on-Hudson,
New York.

My dear Madam:-

Your favor enclosing check received, and many thanks for the same. I called yesterday at Mr. Elder's, and got the Lincoln medals and plaster casts. I will communicate with Mr. Taffray later about placing them in the Metropolitan Museum.

I remain,

Very truly,

May 1, 1914.

Mrs. A. C. Hewitt
Ardsley on Hudson,
New York.

My dear Mrs. Hewitt:-

Thinking over further, our conversation of yesterday, I think I can make arrangements to check up and photograph the Lincoln medals in considerably less time than I first told you. With certain assistance that I think I can get, the whole task should be done in several weeks time, so that these medals would not be tied up very long.

They could then stay here against your order until you were ready to send them elsewhere. Appreciating your courtesy in letting us have them, we would do everything possible to expedite the work on them.

I remain,

Very truly yours,

July 31st, 1914.

Mrs. A. C. Hewitt,
Ardsley-on-Hudson,
New York.

My dear Madam:-

The collection of Lincoln medals, that you so kindly let us have in order to photograph for the work on Lincoln medals, is packed up and ready for your disposal. We have completed our work on these, and we can send them wherever you say, or if it is more convenient for you, we can hold them in our vaults until you wish to transfer them somewhere else. They are done up in two packages so that they can be easily moved, also the medals that were at your home, and were later sent up here from Mr. Elder's, have been packed up in two bundles; one packages of pieces duplicating those in the main collection, and the other package of medals not represented in the collection.

I wish to thank you on behalf of the Society for your courtesy, and beg to remain,

Very truly,

Curator.
